Father's Arcane Daughter was a childhood favorite that retains its appeal though I'm now in my 30s. As with all of Konigsburg's works, this book is a masterful tale that keeps you guessing until the very end.

Konigsburg is the author of the following books; those she illustrated are noted ("illus. ELK"). She said that Father's Arcane Daughter is sometimes her favorite book and Eleanor of Aquitaine is her character that she would most like to meet. Her work has been translated and published in multiple languages, including Korean. [citation needed]
