Pete Greig is a worldwide authority and the face of a generation when it comes to prayer. One of the founders of the 24-7 prayer movement, he has seen, experienced, and chronicled amazing works of God in the world. While you might imagine him to be puffed up, Pete Greig is entirely the opposite. He is enchanting, down-to-earth, friendly, and most of all, very normal--and yet he tells preposterous tales about prayer (and they're true). He is basically a regular dude who loves to talk with God. How to Pray is written to evoke a passion for prayer in everyone--the committed follower of Jesus as well as the skeptic and the scared. The enormous blessing of How to Pray is that it is accessible, full of surprising stories of answered prayer, and tremendously engaging. Pete Greig demystifies and reenchants prayer, helping you to find prayer achievable and enjoyable, and ultimately life-giving and life-changing. How to Pray with Boldness, Authority, and Supernatural Power In a world full of desperate need, we turn expectantly to prayer, hoping to witness the realities promised in Scripture. Most of us, however, seldom see the results we hope for. Why don't our prayers make more of a difference? Beginning with her own experiences of breakthrough, Jennifer Eivaz offers much-needed direction and the biblical context for prayer that does make a difference--explaining the intervention of angels and demons, prophetic manifestations, and much more. She helps believers take hold of their authority and spiritual giftings and use them in the battle for victory. The Kingdom principles and study questions will help every believer navigate the spiritual realm of prayer by using the tools that make it truly effective.

Sadly, many who are called to be great prayer warriors never discover their calling because they are too busy eyeing with envy the fruit of other people's prayers. The fact is that each of us is on a mission from God, and we have been equipped by the Lord to carry out our assignments using the incredible power of prayer. Whether you are a "list" pray-er, a warfare pray-er, a personal intercessor--any of at least a dozen prayer specialties --every Christian has a piece of God's heart to pray and His power to carry to a lost and dying world. This book will help you discover how you can be most effective in praying for your family, your friends and neighbors, your church, your city, and your nation.

Prayer is not something we do; rather it is a connection with our heavenly Father. Through relationship with Jesus Christ, prayer opens the portals of heaven where the Father is beckoning us to boldly and confidently enter His presence, and where our heart and mind become intimately connected with the Father's heart and mind. Every believer in Jesus Christ is called to pray, to seek His presence, perspective and power. And there are some who have been called to intercession, to be Kingdom Watchmen and Warriors. In these last days, the Holy Spirit is longing to equip and empower His people to fulfill the Great Commission, but the Church is in a state of emergency. The Lord is shaking His complacent Church/Bride out of her comfortable slumber. He is healing the wounded and setting the captive free. He is searching out those who are willing to answer His call to watch and pray and to take up arms against His enemy. God's primary goal is for us to love Him. His secondary goal is for us to love each other. Satan's primary goal is to stop us from loving God. His secondary goal is to stop us from loving each other, especially those in the body of Christ, for he knows that if we as Christians come together in unity and love for God and each other, then we are an unstoppable force. Intercessory Prayer is serious spiritual business. Training and testing are mandatory requirements for the development of Watchmen/Warrior Intercessors. The Spirit of the Lord is in pursuit of those who will answer this call. Will you?

Prayer is not just talking to God, but it involves listening also. Prayer is communication, and a one-way conversation does not last long. When you pray, expect God to speak to you. Most often He will do this through His written Word or by a "still small voice" that seems to "speak" to your heart. Prophetic intercession training manual will take you on a deeper path to intercessory prayer.

Methodist minister and Civil War chaplain Edward McKendree Bounds (1835-1913) considered conversation with God as fundamentally vital to the Christian's life as physical breath. He devoted the last 17 years of his life to intense intercession and to penning some of the most perennially popular works about prayer. This attractive volume features the very best of his beloved writings. "God shapes the world by prayer. Prayers are deathless. The lips that uttered them may be closed in death, the heart that felt them may have ceased to beat, but the prayers live before God, and God's heart is set on them and prayers outlive the lives of those who uttered them; they outlive a generation, outlive an age, outlive a world." --from E.M. Bounds on Prayer Every Christian library needs the classics--the timeless books that have spoken powerfully to generations of believers. In the twenty years since its publication, Celebration of Discipline has helped over a million seekers discover a richer spiritual life infused with joy, peace, and a deeper understanding of God. For this special twentieth anniversary edition, Richard J. Foster has added an introduction, in which he shares the story of how this beloved and enduring spiritual guidebook came to be. Hailed by many as the best modern book on Christian spirituality, Celebration of Discipline explores the "classic Disciplines," or central spiritual practices, of the Christian faith. Along the way, Foster shows that it is only by and through these practices that the true path to spiritual growth can be found. Dividing the Disciplines into three movements of the Spirit, Foster shows how each of these areas contribute to a balanced spiritual life. The inward Disciplines of meditation, prayer, fasting, and study, offer avenues of personal examination and change. The outward Disciplines of simplicity, solitude, submission, and service, help prepare us to make the world a better place. The corporate Disciplines of confession, worship, guidance, and celebration, bring us nearer to one another and to God. Foster provides a wealth of examples demonstrating how these Disciplines can become part of our daily activities--and how they can help us shed our superficial habits and "bring the abundance of God into our lives." He offers crucial new insights on simplicity, demonstrating how the biblical view of simplicity, properly understood and applied, brings joy and balance to our inward and outward lives and "sets us free to enjoy the provision of God as a gift that can be shared with others." The discussion of celebration, often the most neglected of the Disciplines, shows its critical importance, for it stands at the heart of the way to Christ. Celebration of Discipline will help motivate Christians everywhere to embark on a journey of prayer and spiritual growth.

The purpose of the training is to impart principles and insight into kingdom strategies for intercession for today. It may serve as a primer for some and a refresher for others. We can no longer pray based on fear, personal desires or the reliance of our own understanding.
