How To Stop Being Angry At Someone Who Hurt You You Cant Make Me Angry

One night, as I was reading the phrase "there is nothing you can do to make me angry", my wife became very restless. I went to her bed and said to her exactly that; adding "I'll stay here the whole night if I have to". She passed away peacefully in my arms and I am able to live the rest of my life without guilt.

You can't make me angry. Instead, I make the choice to get angry. It's more than simple semantics, really. For me, the perspective has become quite liberating and refreshing. For if I say "you make me angry", what I am saying is that I am not in control of my feelings! I have willingly given the control of my emotions over to someone else. We can't find wholeness and healing playing the blame game.
